

DirectHealth.com Under 65 Enrollment Fact Sheet

Walmart is working with DirectHealth.com, a licensed health insurance agency, to launch Healthcare Begins Here. DirectHealth.com is a comprehensive resource that educates customers on their health insurance needs, compares coverage options and enables them to enroll in the plan that is right for them. The resource offers customers under the age of 65 access to more than 70,000 Health Exchange plans from more than 300 leading carriers

Ways Customers Can Enroll:

Compare and enroll in health plans online at DirectHealth.com or over the phone at 888-327-0388.

2,700 Walmart stores will be staffed by independent, licensed agents who can help provide education and guidance about health insurance options.

When Customers Can Enroll:

During the Health Insurance Marketplace open enrollment period from Nov. 15, 2014 to Feb. 15, 2015. Licensed agents will be in stores to provide educational assistance from Oct. 10, 2014 through Dec. 7, 2014.

How Customers Can Enroll:

- Go to DirectHealth.com or call 888-383-2111 and provide information including the annual income, marital status, number of dependents, and state where they live.
- Insurance plan options can be sorted by a variety of factors including monthly premium, deductible, plan type, copay and out-of-pocket maximum.
- Customers choose the plan that works best for them and enroll.

###