I'm very happy that Walmart has taken the stand to help refugees, that they're committed and obviously helped me out in my early career. And now seeing the company that I worked for reaching out and helping the refugees, it's just amazing.

Walmart has done great things for me and my family – has basically enabled me to provide for them, for my family. And I want the same thing for the refugees that are coming from Afghanistan, to feel here right at home and start a career with Walmart.
